

WAC 296-104-050 Administration -- ~~What examinations must a boiler inspector take?~~ What are the requirements for a boiler inspector? In order to qualify as a prospective National Board Commissioned Inspector an applicant shall meet the minimum requirements as set forth in the national board's "Rules for Commissioned Inspectors," NB263, Revision 8 (4/02).

Application for examination for certificate of competency shall be in writing upon a form to be furnished by the chief inspector stating the school and education of the applicant, a list of employers, period of employment and position held with each employer. Applications containing willful falsification or untruthful statements shall be rejected.

If the applicant's history and experience meet with the approval of the board of boiler rules, the candidate shall be given the National Board examination and the Washington state examinations. If the applicant is accepted on the merits of these examinations or as provided for in WAC 296-104-065, a certificate of competency will be issued by the chief inspector.

Examinations shall be held at locations and times when considered necessary by the board of boiler rules. The examinations may be offered four times each year, namely, the first Wednesday and following Thursday of the months of March, June, September and December. Special examinations may be held when considered necessary by the board of boiler rules.
